Three luxury lodges to ESCAPE TO

THE GLASSHOUSE, WHANGAREI HEADS

It's easy to forget you're just two and a half hours away from Auckland when you're sitting high above the rocky foreshore of The Glasshouse at Kauri Mountain Point. There are ancient pōhutukawa trees and rock pools on this private peninsula with views out to distant islands. From $950, kaurimountainpoint.nz.

THE LODGE AT KAURI CLIFFS

It routinely features on lists of the top hotels in the world, and it's not hard to see why. Set on 2400 hectares above Matauri Bay in Northland, it has panoramic coastal views. If you can tear yourself away from the comfort of your villa, there are cycling and walking trails that take in the beautiful surrounds. From $935, robertsonlodges.com.

THE BOATSHED AT WAIHEKE ISLAND

Located above the white, sandy beaches of Oneroa, this designer five-suite lodge is quintessentially Kiwi - there are fine wines to be had, and the beach is just three minutes away. You're also near the island's famous vineyards and alfresco restaurants. Hire a bike or scooter and explore the many golden beaches and their hidden coves. From $685, boatshed.co.nz.
